Maria Christopoulos has been Inducted into the Prestigious Marquis Who's Who Biographical Registry

Mrs. Maria Christopoulos specializes in sonography as the chief executive officer of PregnantSee Inc.

ALDIE, VA, September 29, 2023, Maria Christopoulos's induction into the prestigious Marquis Who's Who Biographical Registry is a testament to her many contributions and unwavering dedication to her profession. With a career spanning over 20 years, Maria has established herself as a leading figure in the field of ultrasound imaging/sonography ranging from 3D/4D to now 5D/8K Ultra technology.

Throughout her career, Maria has consistently delivered outstanding results, been featured in multiple media outlets and achieved numerous milestones. Her expertise in advanced 5D sonography has enabled her to make significant contributions to the healthcare community, partnering with General Electric, improving patient outcomes and advancing the field.

As part of her academic progression, Mrs. Christopoulos pursued higher education, earning a Bachelor's Degree in Behavioral & Social Sciences at the University of Maryland in 1998. Mrs. Christopoulos formerly worked in banking, advancing to Vice President in the retail division for SunTrust Bank from 1998 to 2006. After gaining her expertise as a business executive, she used her knowledge and platform to revolutionize the industry of community health care and began catering to women and their unborn children, specifically via obstetric sonography procedures. To commemorate her achievements, Mrs. Christopoulos was recently featured in an interview on CBN News.

As the Chief Executive Officer of PregnantSee Inc., Maria Christopoulos has demonstrated her visionary leadership and commitment to providing a new approach and model, and offering innovative healthcare solutions for expectant mothers. Under her guidance, for nearly two decades, PregnantSee Inc. has built its reputation as a trusted, recommended and respected leader for its cutting-edge 5D sonography technology and numerous services to hospitals, clinics, doctors, midwives, other sonography facilities and expectant families.

In addition to her role at PregnantSee Inc., Maria has actively participated in industry associations and several pertinent professional organizations including the Society of Diagnostic Medical Sonography and the National Pregnancy Association, raising the bar of her knowledge and proficiency. She has shared her skills, expertise and insights through speaking engagements and publications, further cementing her reputation as an influential thought leader in this specialized healthcare sector.

Maria Christopoulos's induction into Marquis Who's Who demonstrates her exceptional professionalism, command, and dedication to her field. Her inclusion in this esteemed registry serves as an admission of her significant contributions and impact to expectant mothers, their growing families and the unique services she provides. It acknowledges her commitment to creating relationships, an environment where cutting edge technologies and highly skilled technicians are at the forefront, focus on education, a joy and a true love for her profession and the customers she serves daily really shine through.

In light of her fulfilling career, she has largely attributed her success to her faith, as well as her dedication to her profession: "It all ties together for me, I was born to do exactly this. God has granted me the blessing to not only do what I love, but love what I do! Words alone cannot express the jubilation this treasured experience brings to me, as the liaison, being a part of this mother and child's bonding journey. There's a culmination of things to always keep me involved and interested. New people, new pregnancies, new technologies, constant changes and challenges.”
